William M. Manzi, III

Mrs. Kyle opened the meeting at 10:35AM.

ABUTTER CONCURRENCE

Sicard Family Revocable Trust of 2021 - 37&38 Cross Beach Road

Mr. Manzi said this is an abutter assent for Seabrook Conservation and NH DES.

Ravi asked what is at stake here for the town. Mr. Manzi said the town has done this before as it is for work that would be to disturb to protective areas. The assent would be for the town to assent and have no objection to the work.

Mr. Eaton said it is a fair assumption that the owner would be making improvements to the property.

MOTION: Ravi To approve and authorize the town manager to sign the application.

It was stated there is an application before the conservation commission.

Second: Harold F. Eaton
Abstain: Theresa A. Kyle

Mr. Manzi said elected officials come before the board for an increase. The board previously granted a 3% increase for the tax collector, however, have not been able to find approval for the 2024 year.

Ravi said where we are a couple weeks before the election he would prefer to wait until after the election. Mrs. Kyle said if they voted on it previously it should stay and become effective January 1. Ravi agrees if there is record to approve it should stay but if not then he would prefer to wait until after election. Mr. Manzi said the budget can sustain the impact of the 3% increase. Mr. Eaton said if it is in the budget, it should not be held back for the tax collector.

MOTION: Theresa A. Kyle To accept and approve a 3% increase for the tax collector.

There was discussion on the budget and waiting until after the election where there is no previous motion.
